

WHALE SHARKS

THE WORLDS BIGGEST FISH

WHAT IS IT? A WHALE OR SHARK?

Commonly known as Whale Sharks due to their gigantic size and way of feeding, however, are in fact fish
Sharks are Fish, whereas Whales are Mammals

DO WHALE SHARKS BITE?

No, Whale Sharks have 3000 teeth, however, they are so small that they cant cause damage.

SIZE OF WHALE SHARKS?

Up to 39 Ft Long

Whale Sharks can grow up to 39 feet (12m) long!

Can be as large as a school bus
making them the worlds Largest Fish!

WHERE ARE THEY FOUND?

Whale Sharks move through tropical waters all over the globe.
Generally found in shallow coastal areas, but occasionally, the open Sea

PROTECT WHALE SHARKS

Whale Sharks are highly Valued for:

Meat Known as "Tofu Shark"

Fins used for Fin Soup

Fins as Prize Displays

Tourists can swim with Whale Sharks
(A mutually beneficial agreement)

REVENUE PER YEAR BASED ON WHALE SHARK TOURISM

Western Australia, clearly leading the way as one the worlds best destinations to see these majestic creatures